The Aviation Club

Opened in 1991, The Aviation Club was originally built as a private leisure facility for The Emirates Aviation College employees, hence adopting the name "The Aviation Club".

It was commercialised in late 1992 and quickly became one of the most exclusive health facilities in the UAE. It was taken over by Jumeirah in 2012 and molded into one of the most modern and well-equipped health clubs in the city.

The fitness centre is approximately 20,000sq/ft. making it one of the largest health and wellness clubs in the UAE and is considered to be the place where group exercise was born in the Middle East.

The Aviation Club's vast facilities have made it an important meeting point for the international tennis community who, for two weeks of the year, adopt the club as their own during the annual Dubai Tennis Championships.

Members can enjoy a wide range of personal training or group classes, including virtual cycling classes, only the second of its kind in Dubai.
